(ii)   Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000.00) payable on or before the first day of the Program. **

(iii)   Five Hundred Twenty Four Dollars and Eighty Eight Cents ($524.88) payable on the first day of each month beginning _03/11/2019_____, and continuing thereafter for a total of thirty (36) months, for a total of ($18,895.68) in monthly payments. ***

*Cost-of-living and housing are not included.
Tuition includes a new Apple laptop. Once a student takes possession of a laptop there are no returns/refunds allowed. If Student supplies their own "Mid 2012" or newer MacBook Air or MacBook Pro running OS X 10.9, a Twelve Hundred Dollar ($1200.00) Credit will be applied to this Payment.
The cost of credit is included in the price quoted for the goods and services.

There are no additional fees.

Turing accepts payment by check, credit card, and ACH bank transfer.

CANCELLATION & REFUND POLICY

1. The Student will receive a full refund of all fees and tuition paid if:
(a) The Student requests cancellation in writing within three business days of signing an enrollment agreement, providing the Student has not commenced training.
(b) The Student is not accepted for training by Turing.
(c) Turing discontinues a course/program within a period of time a student could have reasonably completed it, except that this provision shall not apply in the event Turing ceases operation.

2. Student requesting cancellation after three business days of signing an enrollment agreement, but before entering the Program, shall be entitled to a refund of all monies paid minus a $150.00 cancellation fee.

3. If a Student withdraws or is dismissed after entering Turing and after three business days of signing an enrollment agreement, the Student shall be entitled to a Pro rata tuition refund in accordance with their method of payment minus an administrative fee of $150.00. This means that the student shall be entitled to a reimbursement in proportion to the percentage of the course the Student has completed.

   a. Any student electing the Up-Front Option of payment will be entitled to a Pro rata reimbursement. The number of completed days shall be determined according to the number of days in the program that have lapsed from the first day of the Program till written notice of withdrawal is received by Turing, or the date Student receives written notice of expulsion.

   b. Any Student electing a Deferment Option will be entitled to a Pro Rata Reimbursement. The number of completed days shall be determined according to the number of days in the program that have lapsed from the first day of the Program till written notice of withdrawal is received by Turing, or the date Student receives written notice of expulsion. The Student shall be entitled to a refund if the amount paid is greater than the refund owed based on the Pro Rata calculation of money owed based on the percentage of the program completed. Otherwise, Student shall be liable to pay any remaining cost of the Program based on the deferment option elected.

c. Any student receiving funds from a third party lending source will receive any refund due as calculated on a Pro Rata basis in accordance with Turing policy. The number of completed days shall be determined according to the number of days in the program that have lapsed from the first day of the Program till written notice of withdrawal is received by Turing, or the date Student receives written notice of expulsion. Any payment made will be refunded to either the student or the lending partner in accordance with any applicable agreement with the lending source, which may require direct repayment to the lender as opposed to the student.

4. All refunds will be made within 30 days of the official date of termination.

5. The policy for granting credit for previous training shall not impact this refund policy.

6. Postponement of a starting date, whether at the request of Turing or the student, requires a written agreement signed by the student and Turing. The agreement must set forth: a) whether the postponement is for the convenience of Turing or the student, and b) a deadline for the new start date, beyond which the start date will not be postponed. If the course is not commenced, or the student fails to attend by the new start date set forth in the agreement, the student will be entitled to an appropriate refund of prepaid tuition and fees within 30 days of the deadline of the new start date set forth in the agreement, determined in accordance with Turing's refund policy and all applicable laws and rules concerning the Private Occupational Education Act of 1981.

CODE OF CONDUCT

All students are expected to act maturely and are required to respect other students and faculty members. Any threat of or actual physical violence on or against any Turing student, faculty, or guest is not allowed on Turing property or at Turing sponsored events. Any Possession of weapons or illegal drugs is not allowed on Turing property.

Any student may be dismissed for violations of the above stated rules. A student may also be withdrawn from classes for misrepresentation or dishonesty in completing assignments or if he or she does not prepare sufficiently, neglects assignments, or makes unsatisfactory progress. Any violation of Turing policies may result in permanent dismissal from the program. The full Code of Conduct is contained within the Turing Catalog. All students are expected to read and be aware of the policy, as indicated below.

NONDISCRIMINATION POLICY

Turing does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin in administration of its educational policies, admission policies, scholarship, and loan programs and other Turing administered programs. It is the Policy of Turing School of Software and Design ("Turing") to admit students of any race, color, national and ethnic origin and provide access to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at Turing.

COURSEWORK IP

Student expressly acknowledges that the Program and all intellectual property related thereto including, but not limited to the curriculum is the exclusive property of Turing. Student expressly acknowledges that all course work, including any projects performed as a student of the Program, shall be subject to a MIT-style license where permission is granted, free of charge, to any person obtaining a copy of the software and associated documentation files (the "Software"), to deal in the Software without restriction, including without limitation, the rights to use, copy, modify, merge, publish, distribute, sublicense, and/or sell copies of the Software, and to permit persons to whom the Software is furnished to do so, provided that the Software is provided "as is" without warranty of any kind, express or implied, including but not limited to the warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose and non-infringement. In no event shall the authors or copyright holders be liable for any claim, damages or other liability, whether in an action of contract, tort or otherwise, arising from, out of or in connection with the Software of the use or other dealings in the Software.

ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement constitutes the binding agreement between the Parties, represents the entire agreement between the Parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements. This Agreement may only be modified by a writing signed by both Turing and Student.
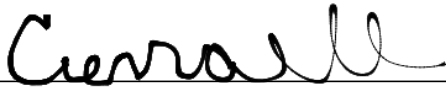

GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Colorado, without regard to conflicts of law principles thereof. Venue for any action or dispute shall be the State of Colorado. Turing is approved and regulated by the Colorado Department of Higher Education, Private Occupational School Board. Complaints may be filed online at highered.colorado.gov/dpos or by telephone at 303-862-3001. There is a two-year limitation from the student's last date of attendance for the Division to take action on student complaints.

COUNTERPARTS

This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.
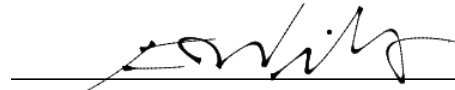

BY SIGNING BELOW, THE STUDENT AGREES TO THE ABOVE TERMS AND AGREES TO PAY TURING SCHOOL OF SOFTWARE & DESIGN THE TOTAL STATED TUITION AND FEES. TURING AGREES TO PROVIDE THE OCCUPATIONAL TRAINING IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PROVISIONS OF TURING'S CURRENT CATALOG VOLUME 5. PAYMENT OF ALL MONIES DUE SHALL BE A CONDITION ON CONTINUING ENROLLMENT. THE STUDENT AND TURING UNDERSTAND THAT THIS ENROLLMENT AGREEMENT MAY NOT BE AMENDED EXCEPT IN WRITING AND SIGNED BY BOTH PARTIES.
